

THE QUERREY INQBATION LAB GROWS

Growing the Community at 1801 Maple

Now in its second year, the Querrey InQbation Lab has transformed 15,000 sq. ft. into a vibrant hub for Northwestern innovators. Backed by $6M+ in state and university funding and a $25M gift from Trustee Kimberly Querrey, The Q is building community and accelerating entrepreneurial impact.

Startup Facts & Figures

17

Q Startups

88 employees

$35M

VC Funding

$11M

SBIR/STTR Grants

Social Networking Hours

Q Pitch Feedback Series

The InQbation Lab hosted its very first Pitch Feedback Session, showcasing early-stage startup founders to pitch, receive feedback from 14 investors, and network afterwards.

8

Pitchers

14

Investors

Farley-Q Entrepreneurial Scientist Bootcamp

This inaugural session featured scientist-entrepreneur speakers and panelists who shared their experiences transitioning from academic research to successful startups. Students participated in hands-on workshops covering key aspects of launching a business, effective networking, and navigating the entrepreneurial ecosystem at Northwestern.

2

Days

30

Participants

SECOND YEAR ACTIVITIES

FoundHer

Supporting women academic innovators and entrepreneurs

Providing workshops & coaching

Expanding Network to San Francisco

SEMINARS

featuring female faculty entrepreneurs and investors as speakers & panelists

7
seminars

454
registrants

Summer Scholars Program

Providing paid entrepreneurial fellowships to Northwestern undergraduates at Northwestern startups

10 Northwestern Students

10 Northwestern Startups

8 weeks

In addition to the experiential learning, the program featured CEO lunches & a Demo Day

Business of Science Series

Seminar Series for Postdoctoral Researchers Exploring Management Concepts, Entrepreneurship, and Commercialization

10
weeks

40
PhDs & MDs

Prof. James Conley
Prof. Mark Finn
Prof. Adam Goodman

Hosted in Partnership with:

CHICAGO BIOMEDICAL CONSORTIUM

CEO Roundtables

Experienced CEOs share insights with Northwestern startup CEOs.

8
events

84
participants

Alexei Mlodinow, KSM '16, FSM '20

Samir Mayekar, WCAS '07, KSM '13